SPECIAL GUESTS

COMMISSIONER CAROL SEILER

Commissioner Carol and her husband Paul began their officership journey in 1981 as corps officers in Hawaii for six years. Following that time came many Divisional Headquarters positions, often times being able to use her professional skills and giftedness in public health and nursing background (she holds a MA in both public health and nursing).

As Divisional League of Mercy Secretary in Phoenix and then Los Angeles, she chaired the Western Territory's HIV/AIDS Task Force and played a vital role in establishing and sustaining HIV/AIDS related education and programming. She was instrumental in developing Bethesda House, the first AIDS shelter program which opened in 1990 in Los Angeles.

Commissioner Carol Seiler became Territorial President of Women's Ministries for the Central Territory on May 1, 2010, and continues in her role as Territorial Coordinator for Strategic Mission Planning.

MINDY CALIGUIRE

Mindy Caliguire is the founder of Soul Care, a spiritual formation ministry that exists to increase "soul health" in the body of Christ. She consulting with national organizations such as Renovare, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, Salvation Army, and her own home congregation Willow Creek Community Church. Mindy contributes to both Leadership and Conversations journals and is the author of numerous books on the topic of spiritual formation.

HALAU HULA GROUP

"Hālau Hula Ka Lei o ka Haku" ("the lei of the Lord"), is the Hawaiian and Pacific Islands Divisional Hula Hālau (hula group) ministry. It is comprised of 12 members representing Corps from Oahu, Maui and the "Big Island" of Hawaii.

Over the years, the Hālau has performed at divisional and territorial events throughout the USA.

BILL BOOTH THEATER COMPANY

Since its inception in 2001, the Bill Booth Theater Company has quickly become the benchmark of dramatic art for the Salvation Army in the Midwestern United States and beyond. Based out of Chicago, Illinois, the group has been featured in concerts, conferences, services and retreats throughout North America appealing to audiences of all ages.
